

Handing Over Your Info

Percentage of US government data requests granted, 2012

Google: 89%

Microsoft: 79%

Twitter: 72%

25%

50%

75%

100%

Source: Company transparency reports

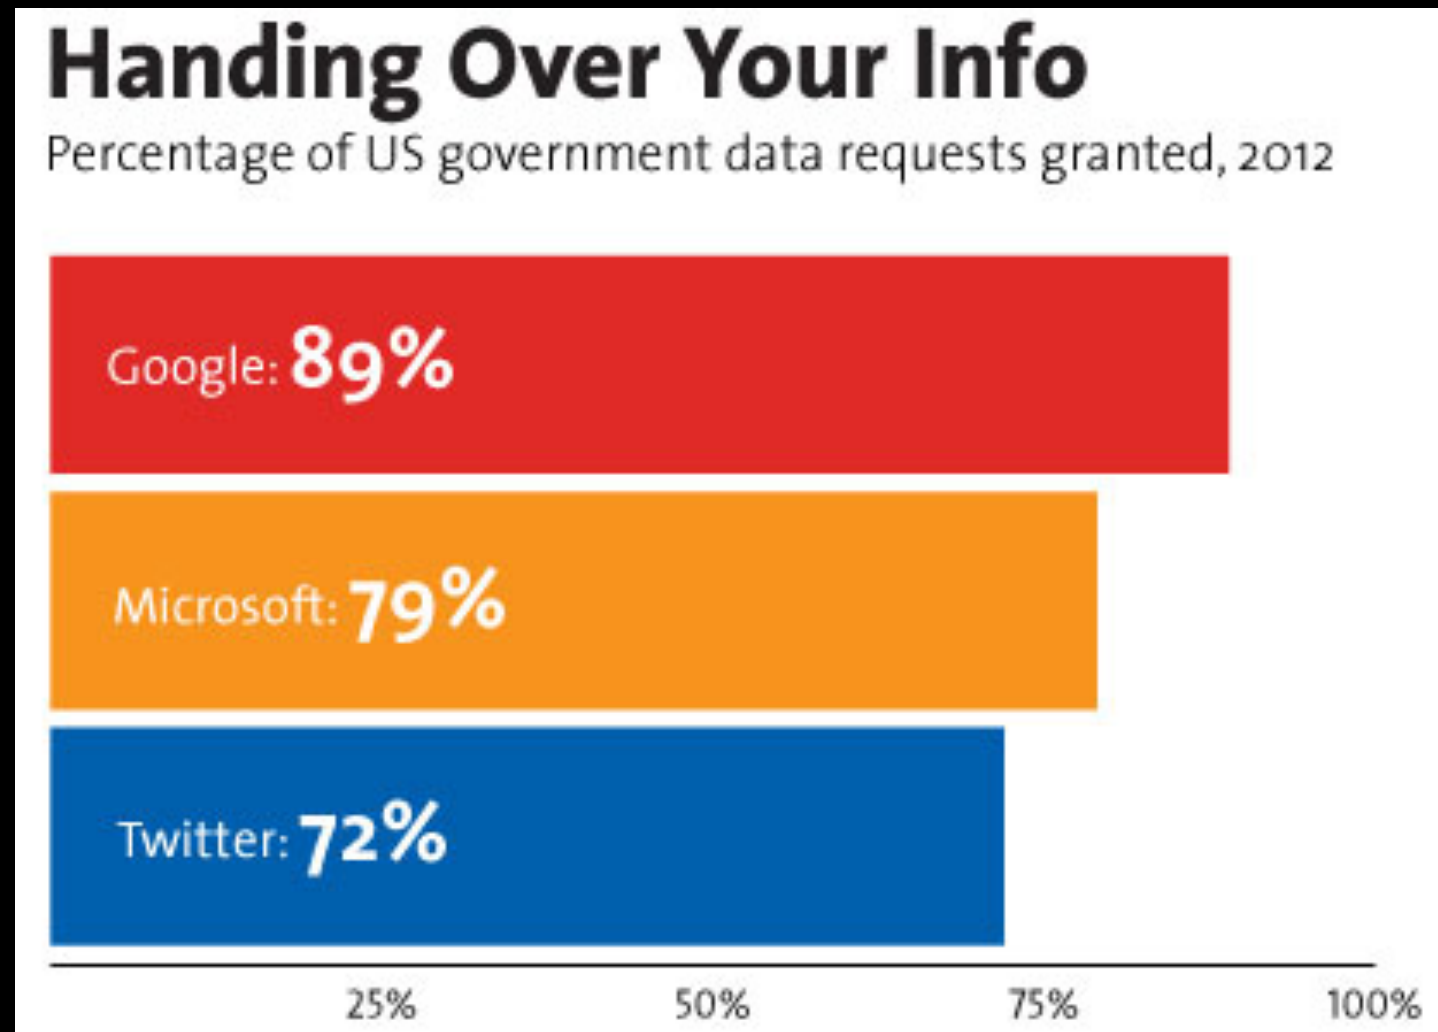

Note: Requests are low-end estimates based on company transparency data excluding national security requests; government only allows some to be made public. Some user data requests are partially granted.

Mother Jones

google, microsoft, twitter

collectively, google, facebook, microsoft and twitter report receiving tens of thousands of requests for user data from the us government annually.

security